Re: Todd Lorenzo Johnson v. UMG Recording, Inc., et al., No. 23-cv-3021 (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Magistrate Judge Stein:

Defendant UMG Recordings, Inc. (“UMG”)¹ writes to request an extension of its deadline to file a motion to dismiss.

Following the Court’s October 3, 2023 order (Dkt. No. 41), the undersigned and Plaintiff have been in ongoing discussions to reach a resolution on Plaintiff’s claim against UMG. In an effort to avoid what may be unnecessary briefing for both UMG and Plaintiff, UMG respectfully requests that the Court grant it a three-week extension to file a motion to dismiss pursuant to the below proposed briefing schedule.

	Current Deadline	Proposed Amended Deadline
Motion to Dismiss	October 27, 2023	November 17, 2023
Opposition to Motion to Dismiss	November 27, 2023	December 18, 2023
Reply in Support of Motion to Dismiss	December 11, 2023	December 22, 2023

This is UMG’s first request for an extension. Plaintiff has informed the undersigned that he is not opposed to the above-requested extension. A copy of this letter is being sent to Plaintiff via email and overnight mail.

Sincerely,

/s/ Ariel M. Fox

Ariel M. Fox

Attorney for Defendant UMG Recordings, Inc.

¹ Plaintiff names Defendant “UMG Recording, Inc.,” an entity that does not exist. This letter is filed on behalf of UMG Recordings, Inc.

Application granted. Defendant UMG's brief in support of its motion to dismiss is due on November 17, 2023. Plaintiff's opposition to UMG's brief is due on December 18, 2023. UMG's reply, if any, is due on December 22, 2023. In addition to filing their briefs and any other papers with the Court via ECF or, in Plaintiff's case, by mail sent to the Pro Se Office for docketing on ECF, the parties are directed to serve their papers on one another via e-mail to ensure that the parties can meet the amended deadlines set forth in this Order. This Order does not change the briefing schedule set forth in the Court's September 28, 2023 Order for the motion to dismiss to be filed by Defendants Spotify and Translation Enterprises. (Docket No. 38). As such, Spotify and Translation Enterprises' motion to dismiss remains due by October 27, 2023, Plaintiff's opposition to that motion remains due by November 27, 2023, and Spotify and Translation Enterprises' reply remains due by December 11, 2023. The Clerk of Court is respectfully requested to mail a copy of this Order to the pro se Plaintiff.
